REPORT

An important programme under the theme 'Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyaan Mass Pledge' was organised by Govt. Degree College Dooru on 13th August, 2024 under the patronage and able guidance of worthy Principal, Prof. Jan Shabir Ahmad. This programme was jointly conducted by Debate/Seminar Committee and NSS in the Conference Hall via Webcast/VC Link send by the Director Colleges, J&K (Higher Education Department). A group of 70 students (NSS volunteers and students) were assembled in the Conference Hall for the purpose of mass pledge ceremony, and they were officially connected on the webcast to participate in the programme. At the outset, worthy Principal, Prof. Jan Shabir Ahmad gave important instructions to the students regarding the modalities & framework of the programme. The programme kickstarted with the recitation of National Anthem, followed by inaugural/opening address by the programme coordinators. The highlight of the programme was presidential address by Commissioner Secretary to Government Social Welfare Department, MS. Sheetal Nanda, IAS, who highlighted the importance of 'Nasha Mukht Bharat' in the context of 'Viksit Bharat @2040'. Director School Education, Shri. Tassaduq Hussain Mir also spoke on the occasion and stressed upon all stakeholders for cooperation in order to make India drug free society. The programme culminated with mass pledge against drug abuse and illicit drug trafficking at 12:17 PM. The students of our college also took oath and made their pledge to combat the menace of drug addiction with full force. The programme ended with the final remarks by the coordinators that collective and collaborative approach is need of hour.
