REPORT

GDC Dooru conducted 'Online Election Quiz' intra-college on 2nd September, 2024 with the theme 'Greater Participation for a stronger Democracy' under the banner of Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP). The aim of this programme was to aware young voters about the basic nature of election process in India and importance, and to sensitize young voters to actively participate in the J&K Assembly Elections-2024 for electing best representatives of people which will work for the welfare of general public. A total of 74 students of different semester of the college participated in the online awareness competition. Students were allowed to answer a total of 15 questions in a stipulated 15 minutes. After the completion of time schedule, online merit list was compiled to select the best three students as per their score achieved during the competition. In order to make online quiz transparent, all students received their final score soon after their submission of quiz entries.
