REPORT

Govt. Degree College Dooru organized two programmes on the occasion of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's (also known as "Architect of the Indian Constitution,") birthday on April 9, 2025. The purpose of these programmes was to highlight the significant role played by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar in shaping basic principles of Indian Constitution and to educate students about the true meaning of the Constitution of India and its role in addressing various issues currently faced by the nation. The invited expert was Dr. Mohd Younes Bhat, Head of the Department of Political Science and Coordinator of the IQAC. The programmes were hosted by Dr. Ummer Rashid, Assistant Professor of Zoology and Programme Officer II of the NSS. These events were held to commemorate the 134th birthday of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Session 1: The programme was kickstarted by the worthy Principal, Prof. Peer Irfan Rashid by giving inaugural address. In his remarks, Prof. Peer Irfan Rashid highlighted the important role played by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in the making of constitution and pointed out that students should take interest in understanding various tenets of Indian constitution. In the first session, Dr. Mohd Younes Bhat delivered an expert talk titled "The Key Role of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in India's Constitution-Making Process." At the outset, Dr. Younes highlighted Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's background and emphasized his mission to contribute to the building of a new India through the design of the Indian Constitution. He elaborated on the importance of the Constitution of India for the welfare of its citizens and discussed its philosophical significance by providing various examples. Dr. Younes underscored the role of the Indian Constitution in establishing India as one of the most revered nations in the world. He pointed out that India has made significant progress in various fields only after empowering its citizens, as envisioned in the Constitution. Finally, he encouraged students to read the entire Constitution to lead purposeful and respectable lives and contribute to nation-building. The closing remarks and vote of thanks were presented by Dr. Ummer Rashid.

Session 2: In the second part of the programme, pledge ceremony was held in the conference of the college to make commitment to uphold the sanctity and dignity of the constitution and work for national building under the ambit of constitution. Students & teaching staff of the college participated in this special event.
