REPORT

Govt. Degree College Dooru organized painting competition on March 12, 2025 under the banner of International Women's Day. The aim of this programmes was to honour the contributions of women to society and to encourage young women to showcase their positive voice in favour of women through paintings. The venue for this programme was conference hall. Before the commencement of programme, students were given instructions to be followed during the competition. Registered students from various semesters participated in this competition. Students were provided all the necessary requirements needed to complete the painting and were given stipulated time limit (one and half hour) to complete the competition on the theme. After the completion of the painting, students handed over their painting to the concerned jury of judges. All the students who participated in the painting competition were felicitated with certificate of felicitation and best three students were awarded mementos.

In addition, student discussion on IWD-2025 was also held in the conference hall. The purpose of this session was to highlight the issues faced by women and dive deep into various ways these issues can be resolved. There was consensus in the discussion that women should be given space in the Institution to deliberate upon their issues and have proper mechanism to address their grievances. In the end students made some recommendations to worthy principal for the welfare of the female students. The programme ended with the final remark that women-oriented programmes pertaining to wide range issues should be conducted in the Institution on regular basis.
